

Olga's Music Studio

Olga holds a Master of Music degree in Piano Performance and Education. She has been working as a Collaborative Pianist, Piano instructor and soprano soloist since 1976. She also got training in Organ performance at CMSS and serves as an Organist/Pianist in churches in the Greater Cleveland area.

Olga's Music Studio is equipped with an Artist Series Knabe Grand Piano, Digital Grand Korg, extensive music library to include text and CDs, and several teaching tools designed to engage the student on a multitude of levels.

A comfortable waiting area is available as parental presence is requested during the lesson. This helps to ensure accountability for the student and Studio.

The studio is pet free.

“Olga is an absolutely wonderful teacher, fun and sweet, patient and professional! Olga's personal attention tailored to our children's needs and willingness to go the extra mile to help them succeed is very much appreciated!”
- Nancy Q.

“Finding a piano teacher was a long process. When we decided to join Olga's Music Studio, we knew we had made the right choice. Her instruction has exceeded our expectations. The boys are playing well above what we thought they could!” - Audrey K.

“Ever wonder how professional pianists make it look so easy? It's all about proper technique, and this is exactly what Olga teaches in a methodical, thoughtful way. Magnificent classical piano pieces I once thought too difficult to master are now possible. Thank you, Olga!” - Lawrence K.
